Editorial

This Summer has kicked off with the July Orleton Fete, which attracted a large number of residents and visitors who were able to enjoy a range of stalls and entertainment, all provide by a volunteers from our community. If you were not involved and would like to participate in future community events, even if only in a small way, please email your details to this magazine. See below.

This event will be followed up in August by a visit from our regular guests, members of the Van Club. Last year their focus was a Barn Dance, restricted to members, but this year the highlight will be a Craft Fair and Farmer's Market on 30th August, featuring their members, but also open to Orleton residents as both stall holders and visitors. Stalls (£15) can be booked at Christa@thevanclub.co.uk.

If that is not enough excitement for one day the Maidenhead are holding their Summer Festival of music, children's activities and more, also on 30th August. See the advertisement for further details.

Looking further forward to the Autumn we will be welcoming the renown Ludlow Concert Band. This large band produces an amazing sound and covers classics, songs from the shows and popular music - something for everyone. They will be appearing at the Village Hall on 19th September and tickets are already available at Orleton Village Shop and Post Office. Book early to avoid disappointment.

Orleton Village is a home to a wide variety of talents, many of whom may not be confident in providing an evening of entertainment on their own, but what would be fantastic is if these talents could be brought together for a cabaret evening with each providing a small example of their musical skills.

This is something which we would wish to develop during the coming Winter. If you have a talent to provide, say 20 mins of musical entertainment as part of a selection of acts for an evening cabaret entertainment, please email this Magazine.

Orleton History Group

The History Group took a break for the summer holidays in July, so our next talks are on:

Saturday 29th August at 2.30pm, St George's Church: Linda Crichton, a Hereford Tour Guide, will present a discussion of iconic buildings in Hereford City Centre that reflect different periods of development and styles of architecture through the centuries from Medieval, Jacobean, Georgian to Victorian. Some you've seen, some may hold a few surprises!

Saturday 26th September at 2.30pm, St George's Church: following his very popular talk on PTSD last year, Peter Naish returns to talk on his favourite topic of hypnosis. Believe it or not, hypnosis has been around since the time of the Ancient Egyptians. Down the ages the effects have been ascribed to the power of the gods, to magnetism and to . . . well a denial that there are any effects! Now you can come and hear the history and the truth. By the way, Peter promises he won't make any of the audience come to the front and behave like a headless chicken or the like!

Saturday 31st October at 2.30pm, St George's Church: Orleton on the edge: discover the fascinating story of how Orleton (and St George's as part of this) seems to have always had an uneasy relationship with Leominster and the Priory. John Berry and Liz Mackay will explore how, rather than sitting contentedly under the control of Leominster and the Priory, Orleton seems to have often trodden its own path, often putting it in the midst of power struggles between Church (represented by the Priory) and State (represented by the powerful Mortimer lords, who were lords of Orleton). You can read reports on previous talks at the history group page at: www.stgeorgesorleton.org.uk (and then click on 'Orleton History Group'). You can also find, at the same web address, the reports on the research undertaken so far into the lives of the men on the Orleton War Memorial. If you would like further information about the group, please contact Liz Mackay on e.e.mackay@gmail.com, or 07484 679671.

Orleton Village SUMMER FETE

We just wanted to say a huge thank you to everyone who helped make the Orleton summer fete a wonderfully fun, friendly, community event. In addition to having a super day, we even raised just over £3000, to be shared between the Village Hall, Recreation Association and St George's Church.

Thank you to everyone who came, took part, ran stalls, donated items, cooked food, baked cakes, set up, tidied away, kept everyone supplied with cups of tea, got drenched in the stocks, played music, organised dogs shows, maypoles, fire service, police cars, etc. etc. We realise we are in a danger of this becoming Oscar speech and it isn't possible to mention everyone and all the jobs people did, or we would take up the whole of this magazine.

. So, thank you very very much to everyone involved.

Here's to another wonderful day next year! And just because it's never too soon to think about next year (the planning begins now): if you have any thoughts about next year's Fete, please get in touch with one of the Festivals Committee: John Berry, Sara Burnham, Sue Copson, Nicki Gunn, Liz Mackay, Claire Morgan, or Marj Pritchard (The Festivals Committee works together across the Recreation Association, Village Hall and St George's Church to put on four big events for the village each year – the St George's Festival, the Fete, the Harvest Festival & lunch, and the Stars & Angel Festival)

Orleton Craft Group

We meet on the first and third Thursday afternoons in Orleton Village Small Hall, £4 per session.

Our Crafternoons run from 1:30 to 4:30, bring along whatever you are working on, enjoy friendship, chat, tea and cake!

Orleton Church & Chapel News (August 2026)

Update

As the glorious sunny weather continued throughout July, the church has come into its own as a cool space! One of the coolest places in the village, it is a super place to work, read, do a puzzle, sit and chat, or for children to play or draw.

Our church services continued to focus on the growth of the Christian church, following Christ's death and resurrection, and the challenges his disciples faced – a very pertinent question today as the challenges in making the church a central part of the village community. We are doing our best but always welcome new ideas – please let Liz or John know any thoughts you may have (e.e.mackay@gmail.com, jsberry47@gmail.com).

Socially, we were delighted to work with the Rec and the Village Hall to organise the annual Village Fete, at which great fun was had by all – more details in another article in this magazine.

In August, we continue with our usual pattern of Church services, both traditional morning services and more informal services in the afternoons, as detailed in the table below.

Many social activities take a pause for the holidays in August, but look out for:

- The church hosting the Wednesday coffee mornings, to give the regular team a break (dates & times detailed in the advert elsewhere in the magazine);
- The history group talk at the end of August, where we have a virtual tour of Hereford from the comfort of our seats in church – details also elsewhere in the magazine;
- The return of Pizza & Games on the first Friday of September.

More detail on these events can be found in the notices elsewhere in the magazine.

Updates on our other activities, including an update on our Family Services, Prayer Group, the Orleton History Group, Singing for Fun, Open the Book, food bank donations, and the 100 Club winners, can be found in our full newsletter, at: <https://stgeorgesorleton.org.uk/news/news>, and click on 'Church & Chapel News'.

HIDDEN GARDENS OF HEREFORDSHIRE

On 30th June we welcomed back Alun and Jill Whitehead, proprietors of Aulden Farm, a three-acre informal country garden planted with wildlife in mind. Aided by a delightful slideshow Alun and Jill took us on a whistle stop tour of twenty-seven of Herefordshire's gardens, large and small, some well-known, others less so.

In early Spring snowdrop displays can be found at Ivycroft, a small nursery specializing in unusual plants, the National Trust's Weir Garden and Lyndalls, a twenty three acre garden boasting a lake as well as one of the finest snowdrop collections in the county.

Later in the year The Old Rectory at Thruxton has a fine collection of irises, there are tulip and camassia meadows at Titley Mill followed by roses. Old roses drip romantically from the ruined walls of Wilton Castle with a pretty garden surrounding the adjoining manor house.

Interesting water features are found at Bryan's Ground, a remodeled Arts and Crafts garden, with its serpentine edged canal and follies, The Court of Noke at Pembridge with its C17 garden and T-shaped canal and Lawless Hill, Sellack, a garden with a Japanese ambience and an infinity pool. The charming half timbered village of Eardisland has its own collection of gardens by the river Arrow, including Glan Arrow with a herringbone haha and white garden.

The houses are also of great interest, varying from cottages to Victorian and Arts and Crafts buildings. Perrycroft, Malvern, is an Arts and Crafts house designed by CFA Voysey. Although not a garden designer Voysey's houses were designed to blend seamlessly with their gardens. He designed the benches and gates at Perrycroft as well as the internal fittings.

These gardens are a taste of the hidden delights revealed by Alun and Jill. A list can be found on the Club's website.

Ghislaine Arundale

On August 15th we will hold our 45th Annual Show at Orleton Village Hall. See our website for more details of classes and timings. Viewing and Refreshments from 1.30 pm.

Community Safety

Ride Along Scheme

Have an interest in policing?

Thinking of a career in policing or simply wish to find out more about what we do?

Our Ride Along Scheme gives you an opportunity to follow a police officer on shift.

The aim of the scheme is for us to strengthen relationships with the public and help people understand more about what we do and how we police.

In-Person Ride Along

You will accompany a local neighbourhood officer on patrol and experience first-hand their work to resolve issues or concerns in the local area. You'll get an insight into what it's like to be a police officer on shift and an opportunity to experience an unrivalled view of front-line policing.

Virtual Ride Along

Our Virtual Ride Along Scheme lets you follow an officer's shift remotely through live body-worn video, offering an accessible way to see policing in action from a police station.

It provides a unique insight into how officers handle incidents and make decisions, while allowing more people at once to experience neighbourhood policing in a safe and controlled environment.

Who is the scheme open to?
